"All real living is meeting"

— Martin Buber

Meeting is encountering . . . encountering
the unknown . . .
in moments of quiet meditation that
challenge
us to go beyond . . .

Questions lead us to meeting . . . meeting
the challenges
that study presents . . .
The satisfaction in yourself and your accomplishments . . .
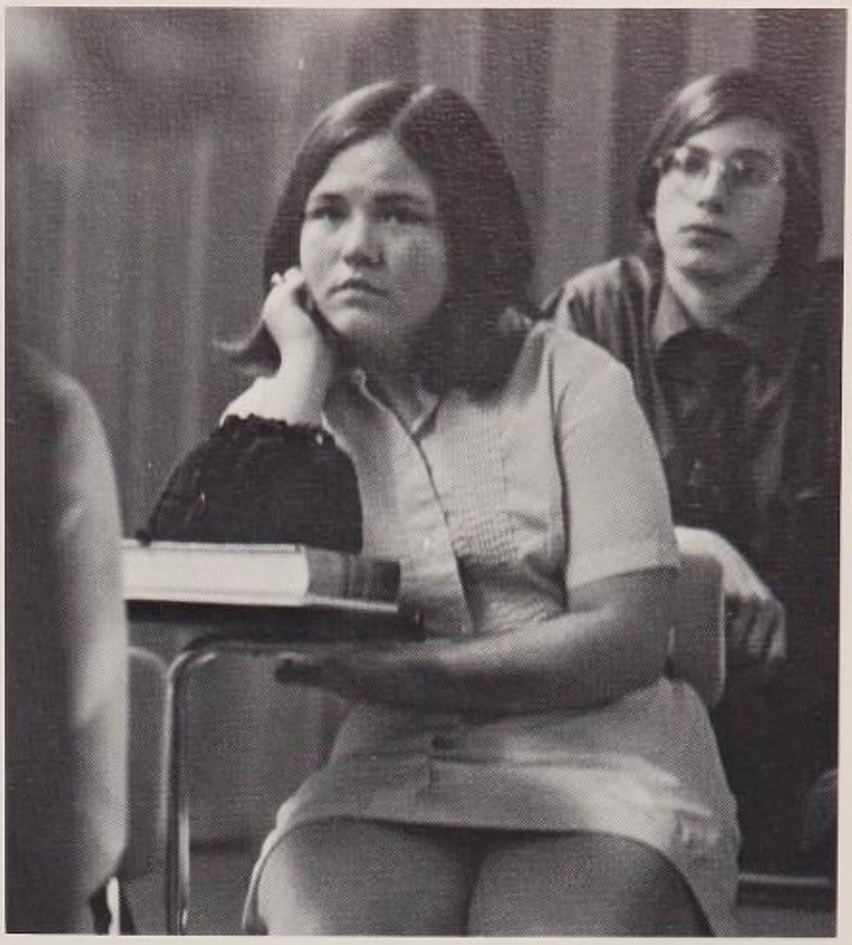
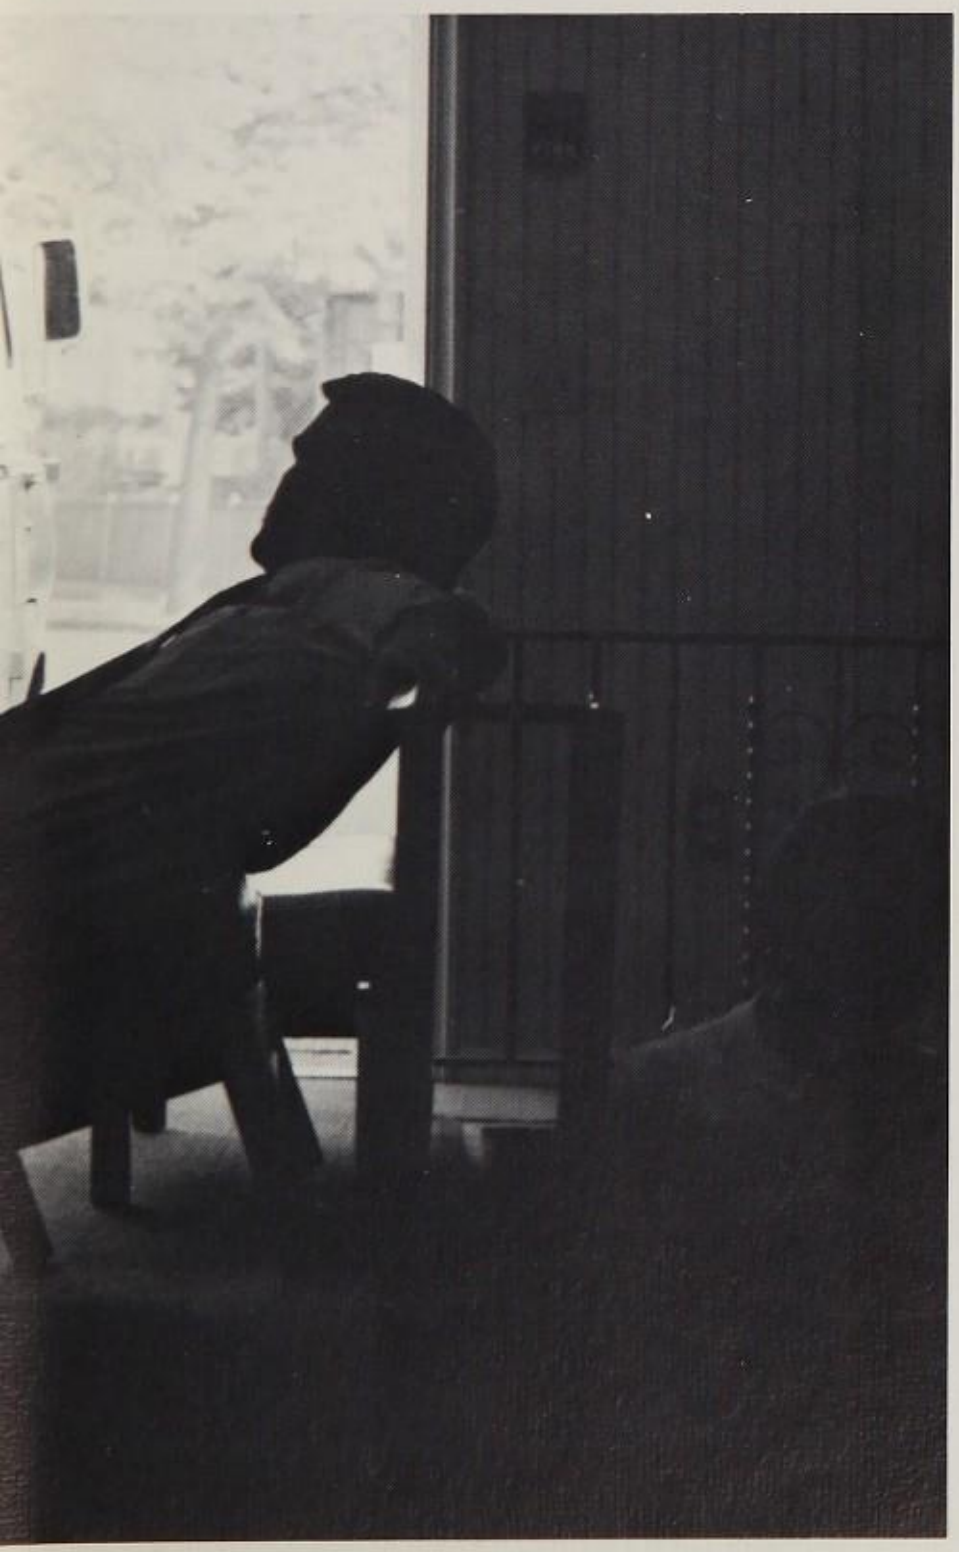
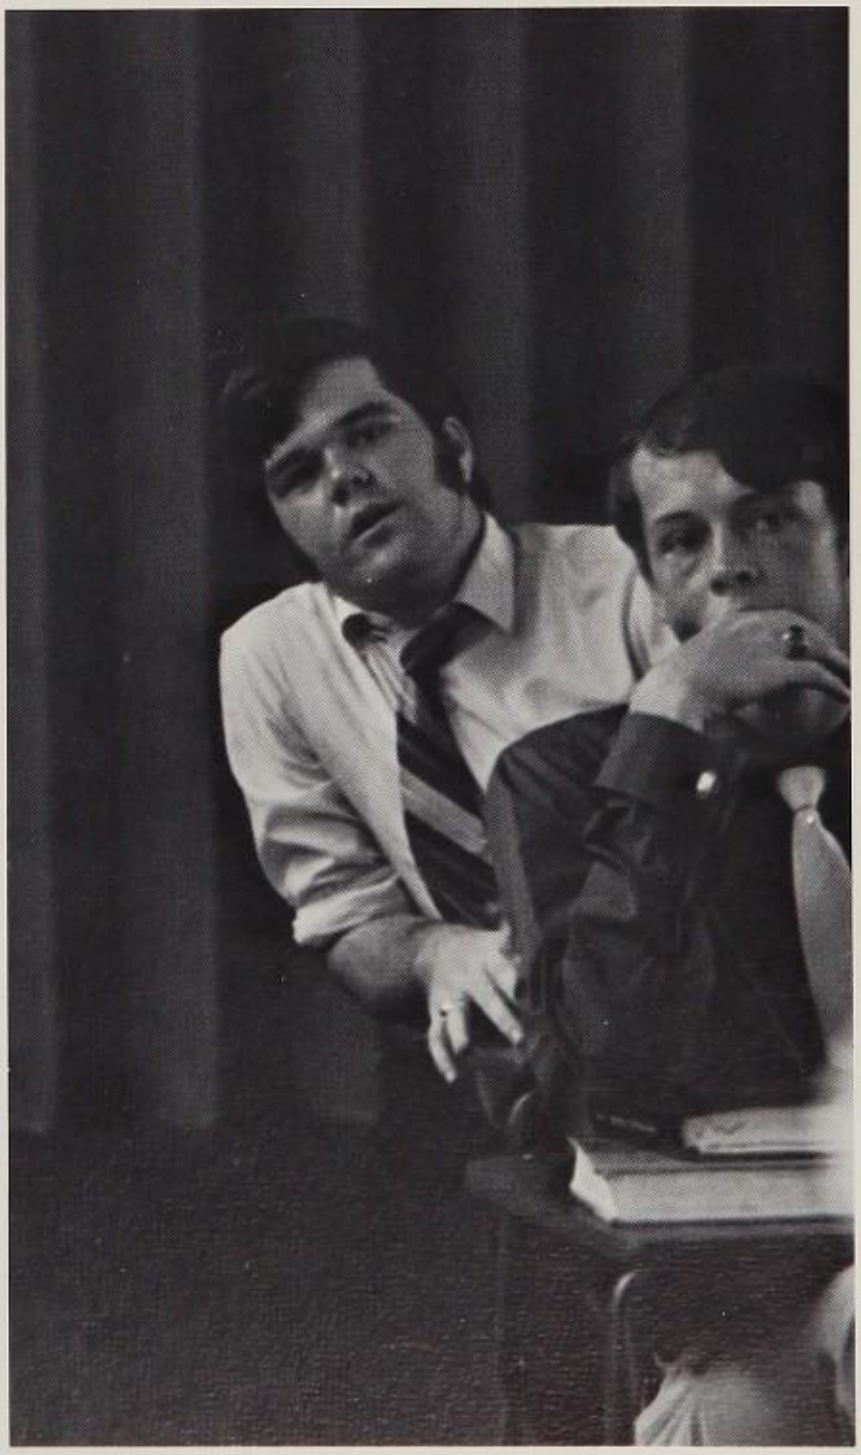
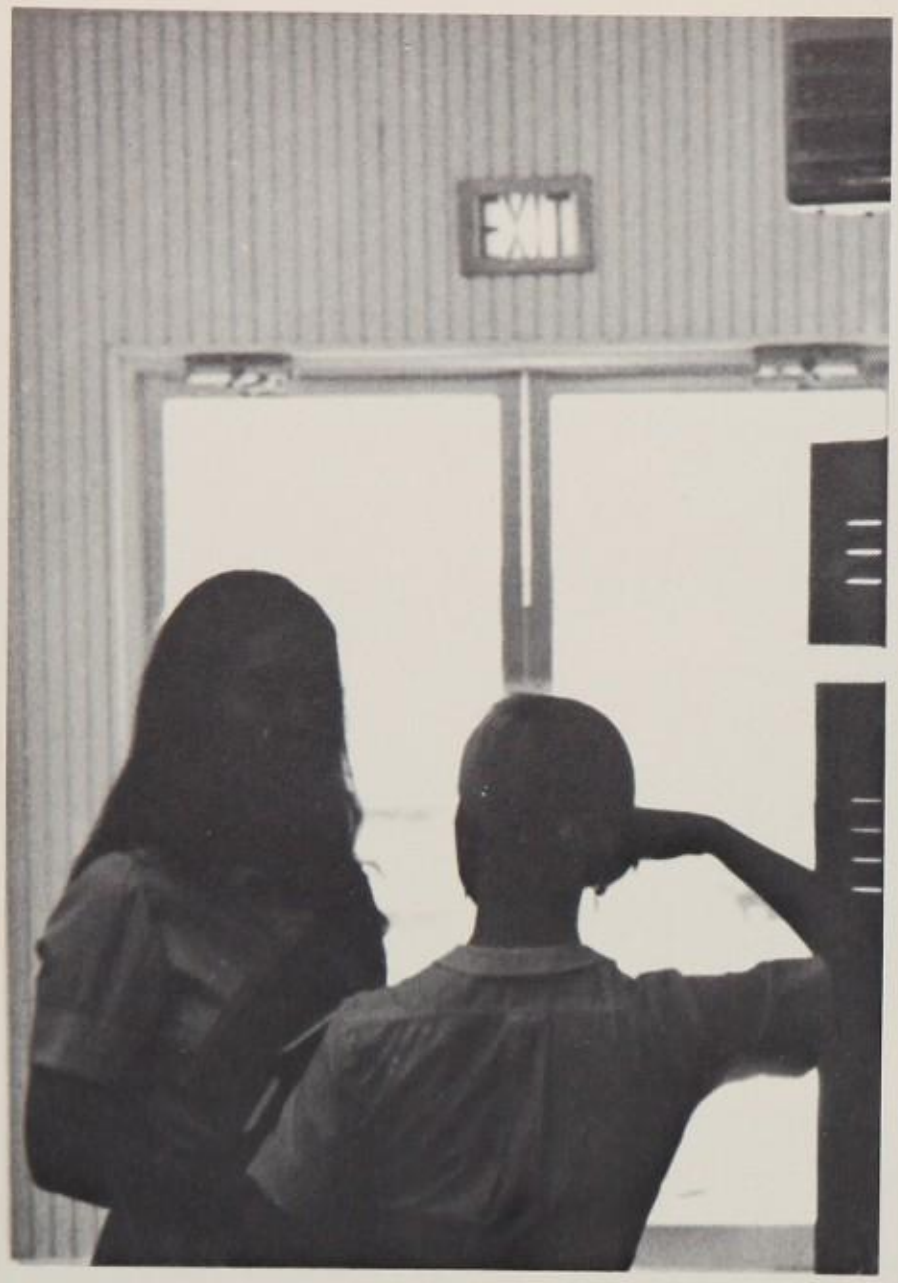
after hours of probing study . . .



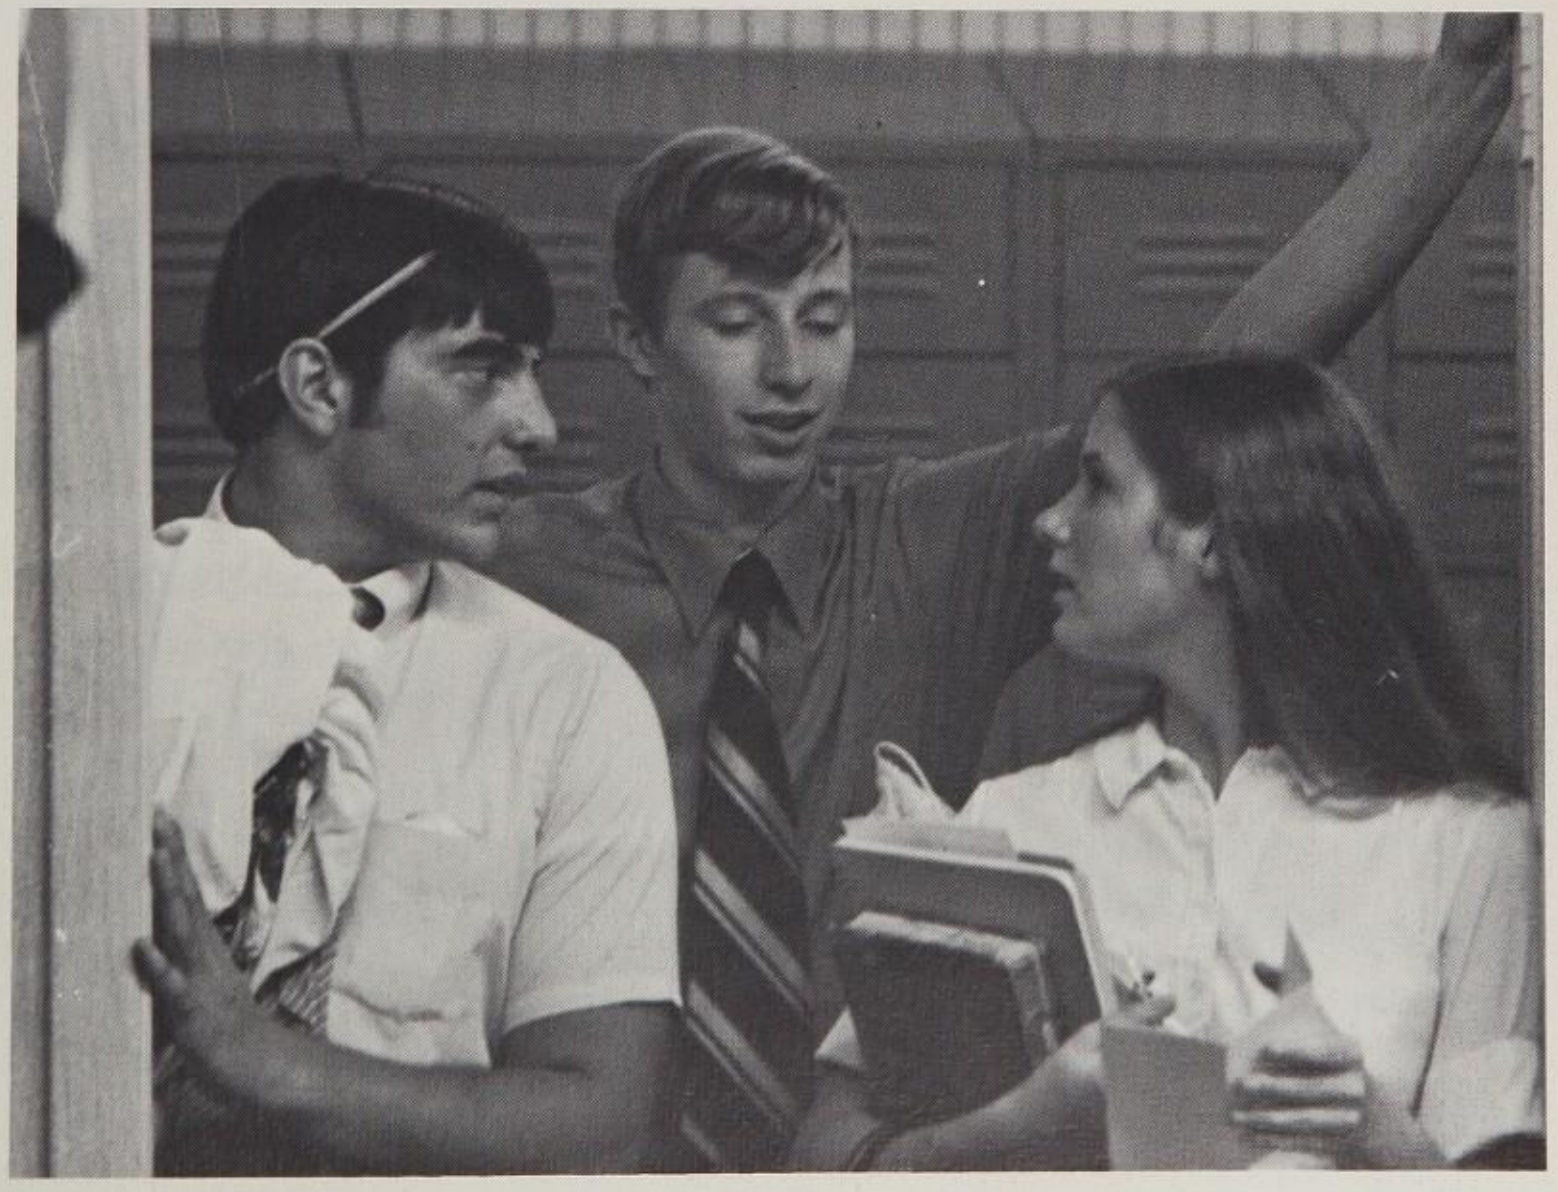


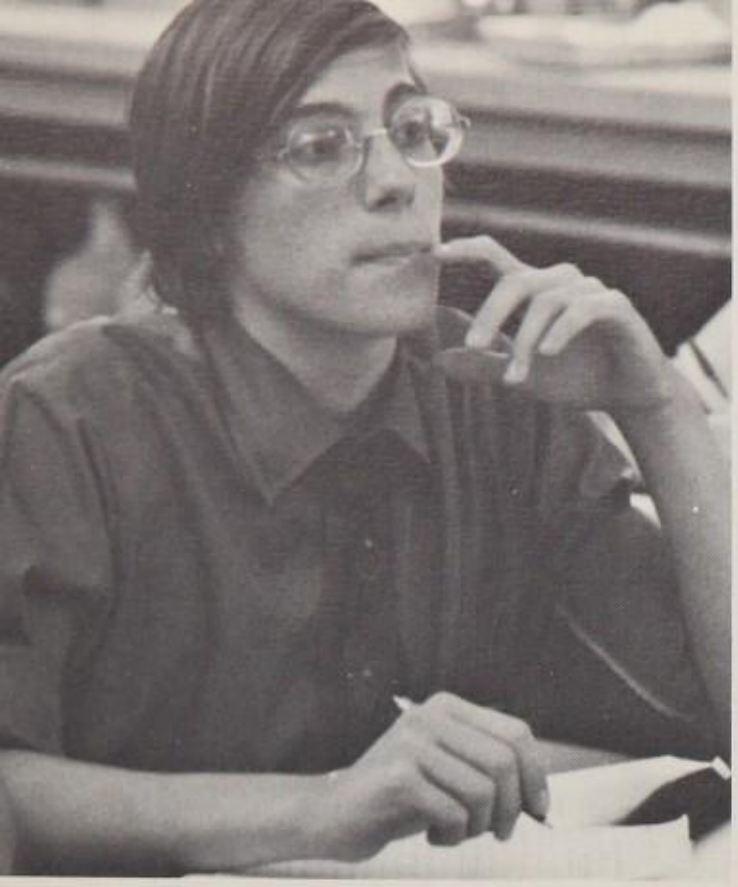


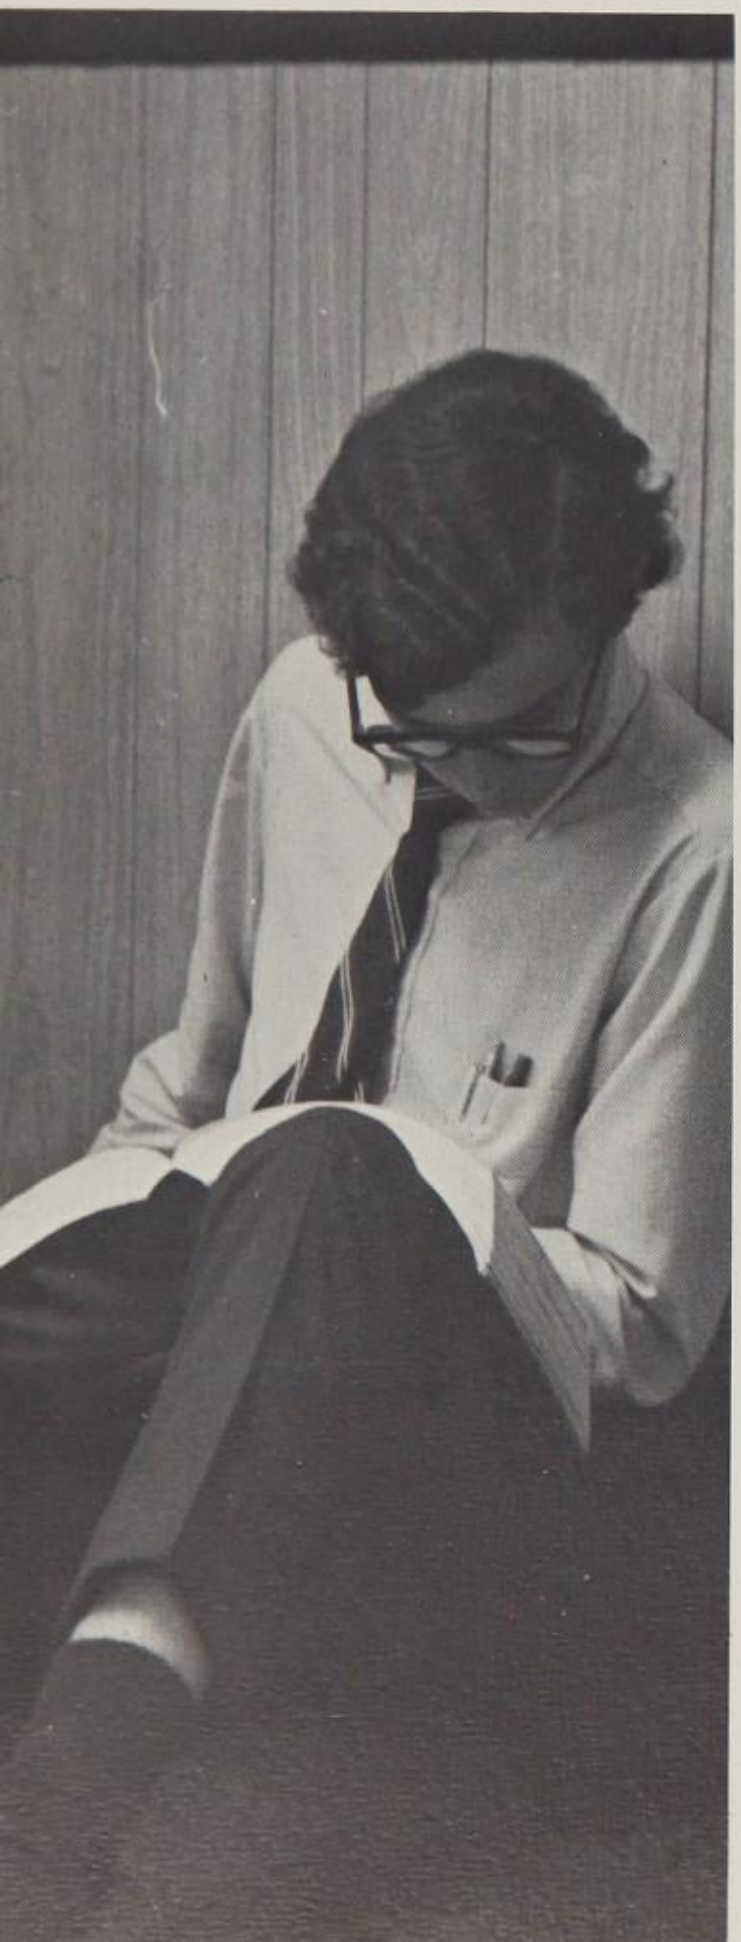


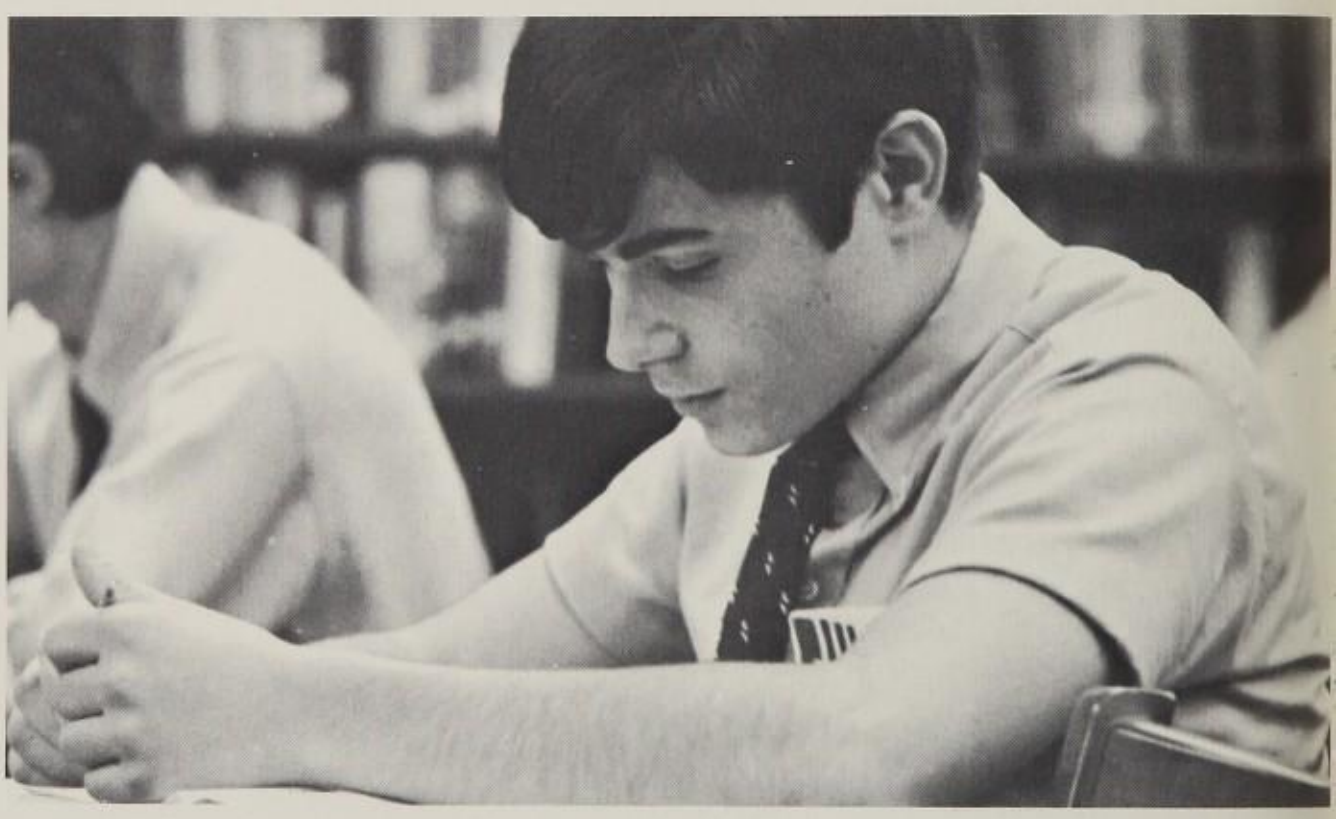
EXIT

We became
through each
other . . .
Living
we are constantly
Growing . . .
Searching . . .
Loving . . .
Together.









We communicate with one another
Aiding each other
Always turning to our innerselves –
And the constant frustration of longer hours
of private study awaiting us . . .

Tranquil moments of creativity . . .
and much needed relaxation.

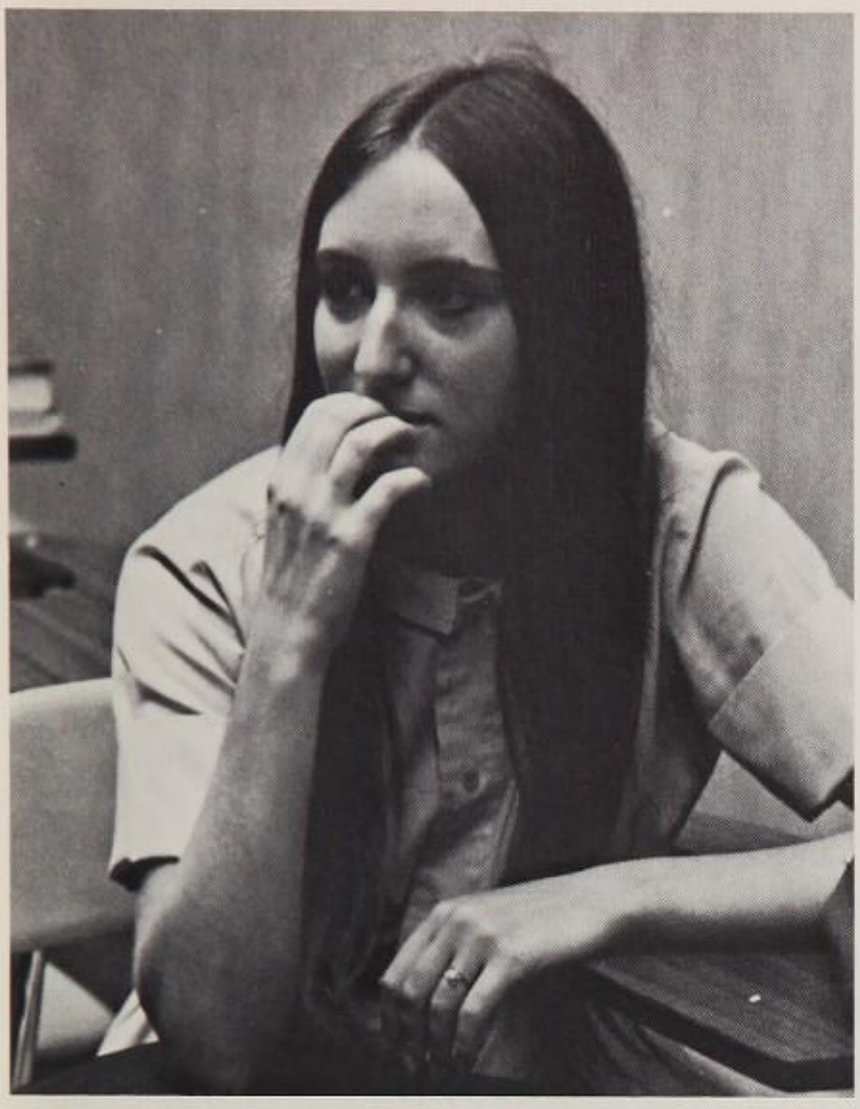
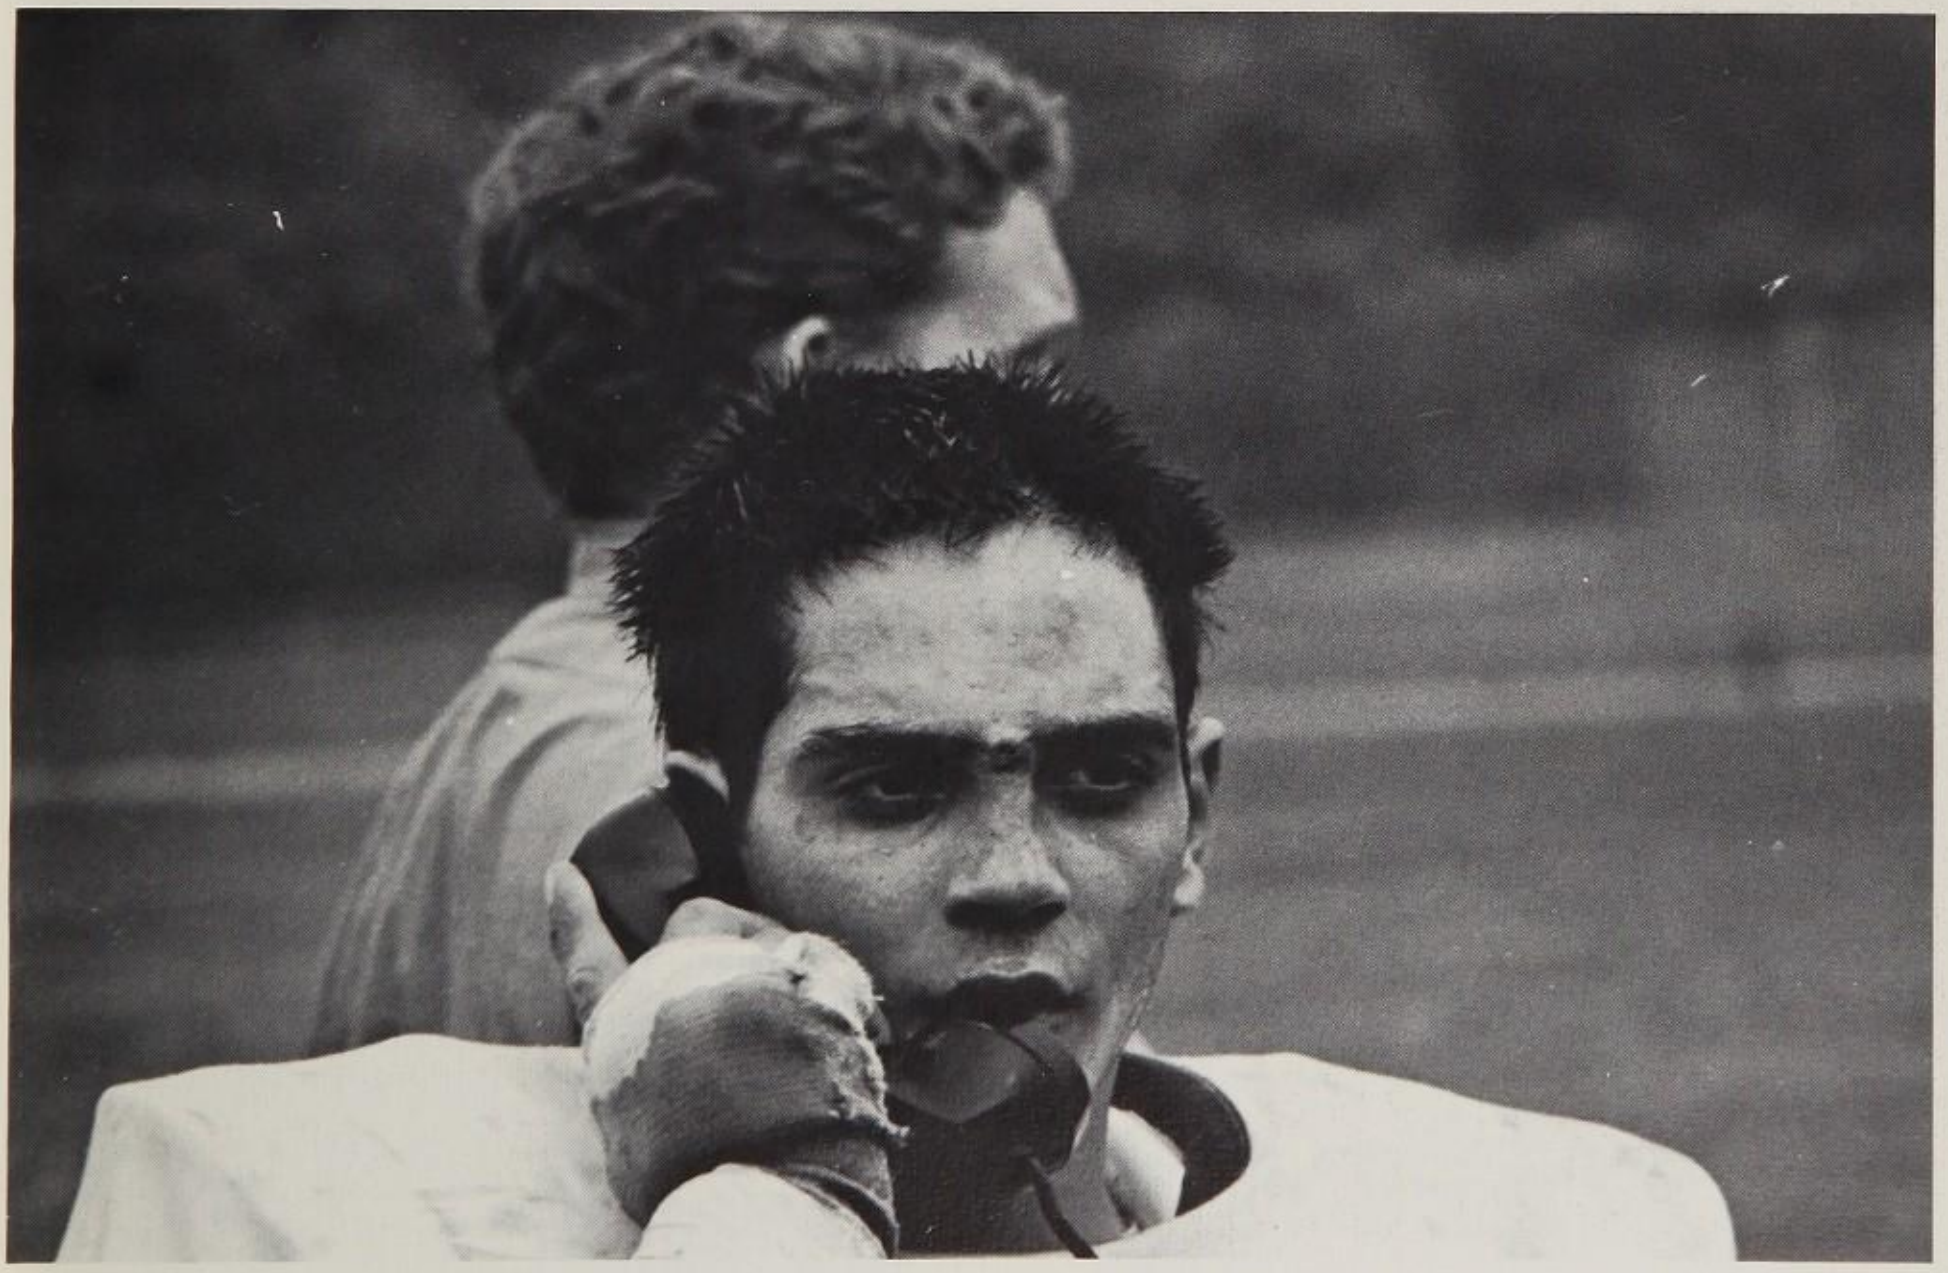
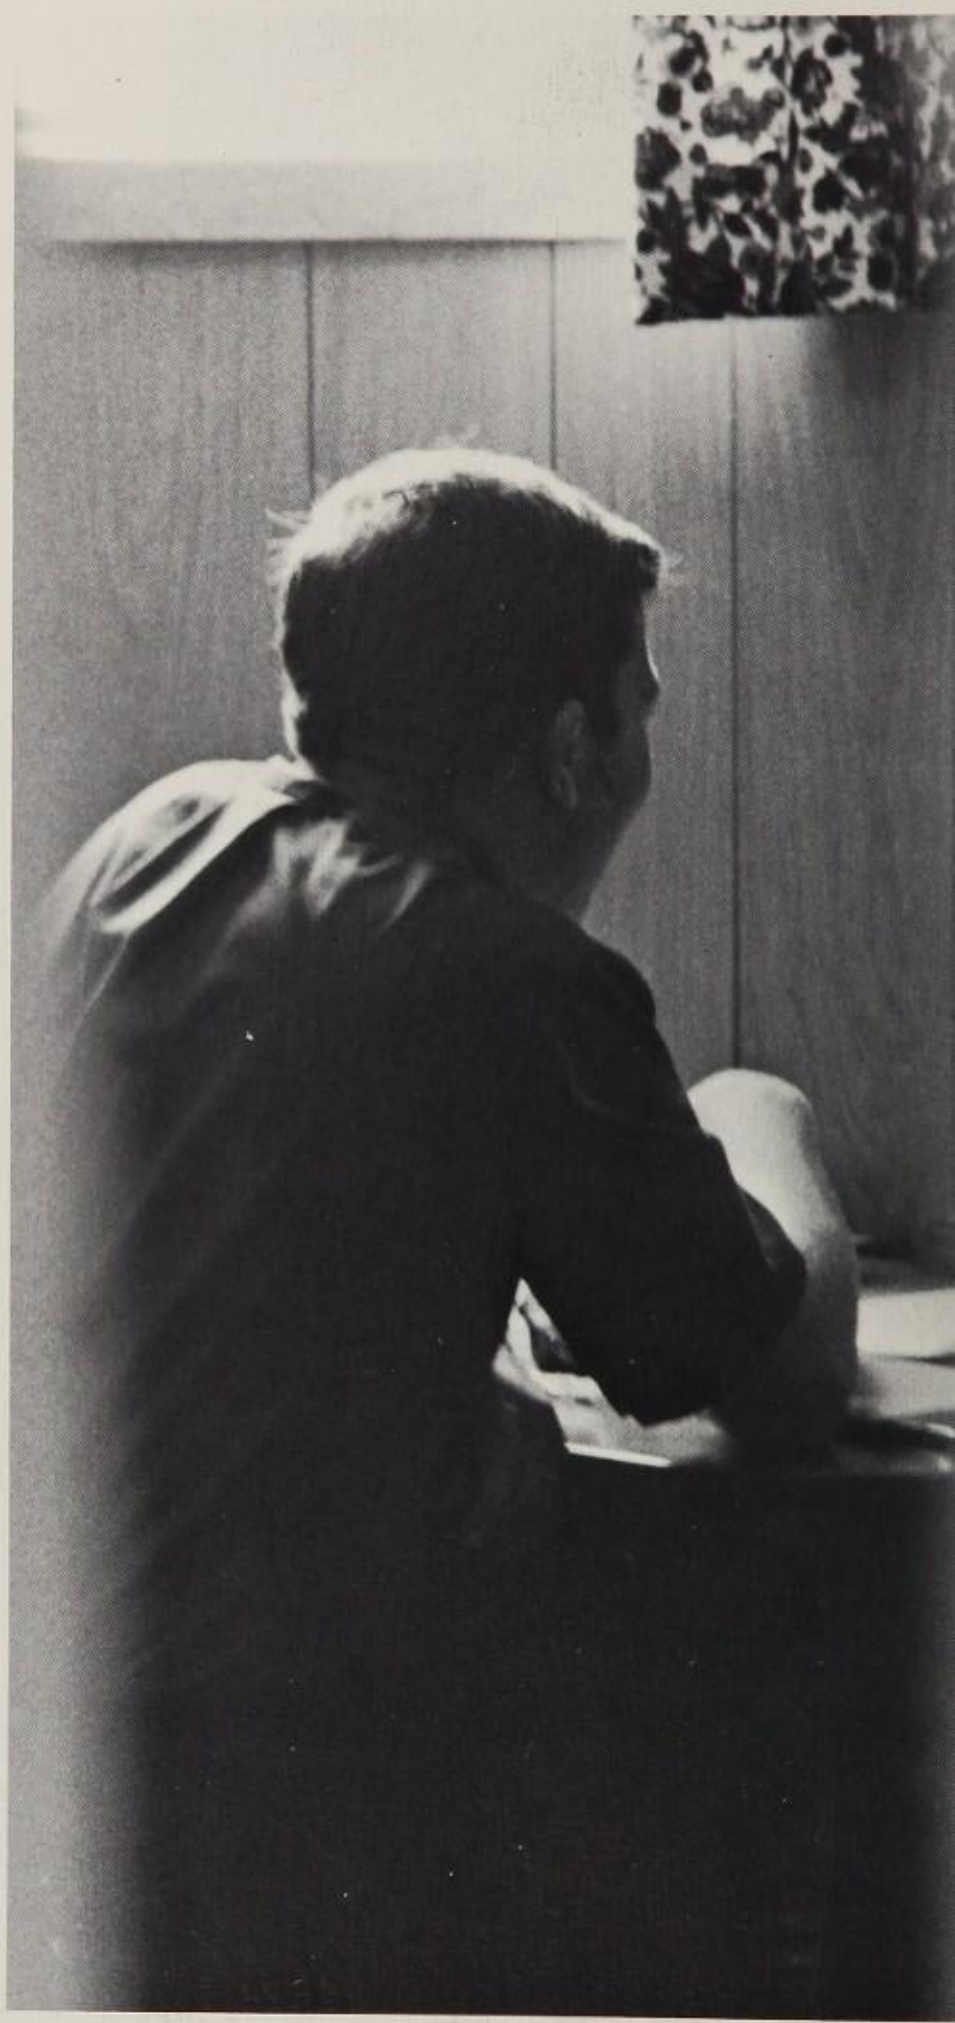
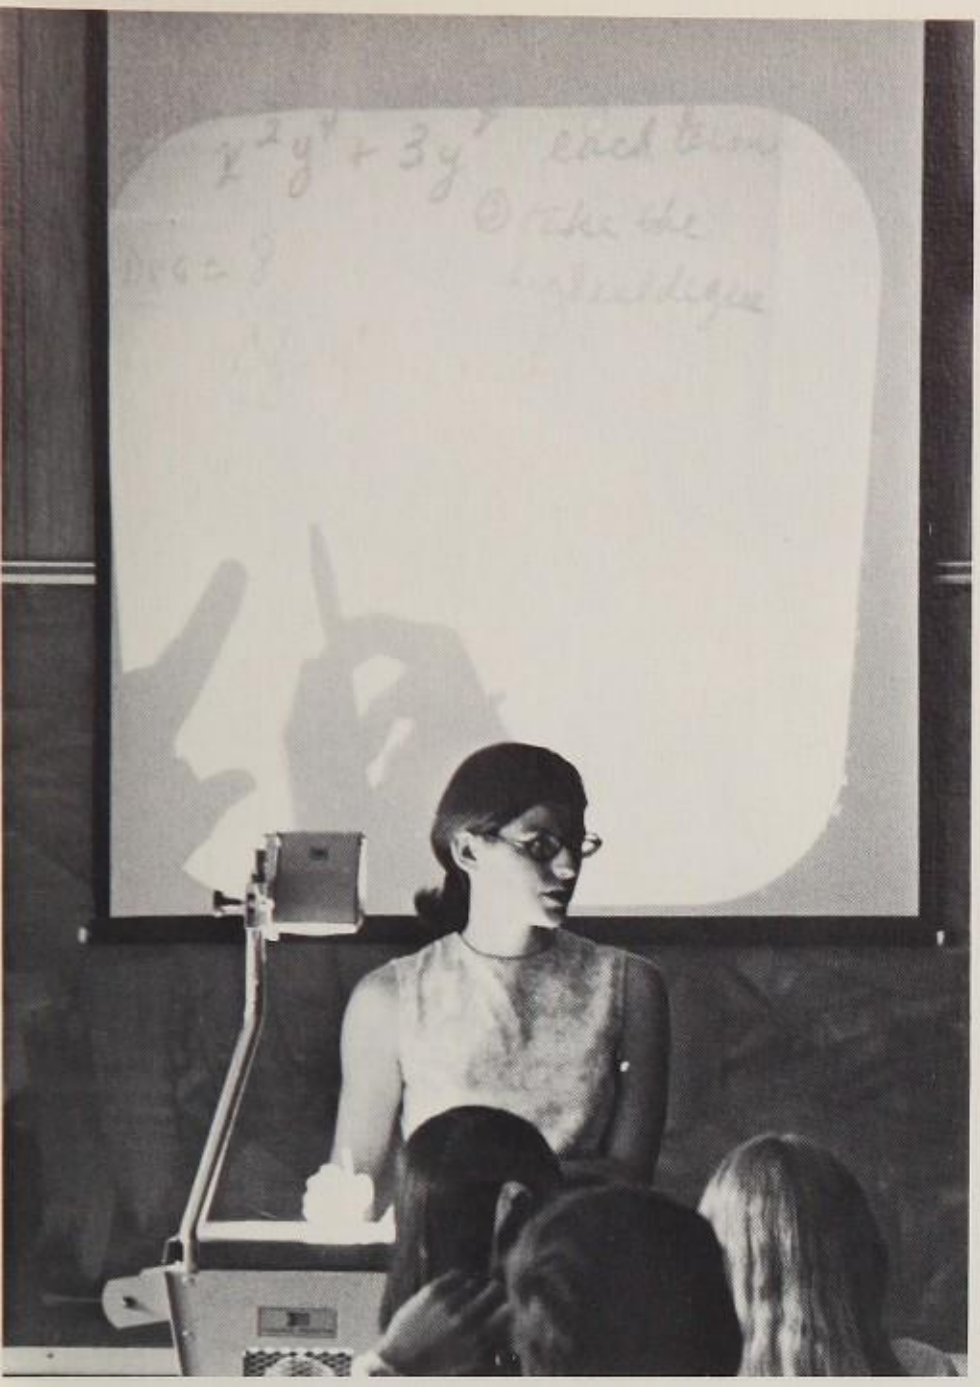
sharing together the feeling . . .
the challenge accepted . . .
and conquered . . .



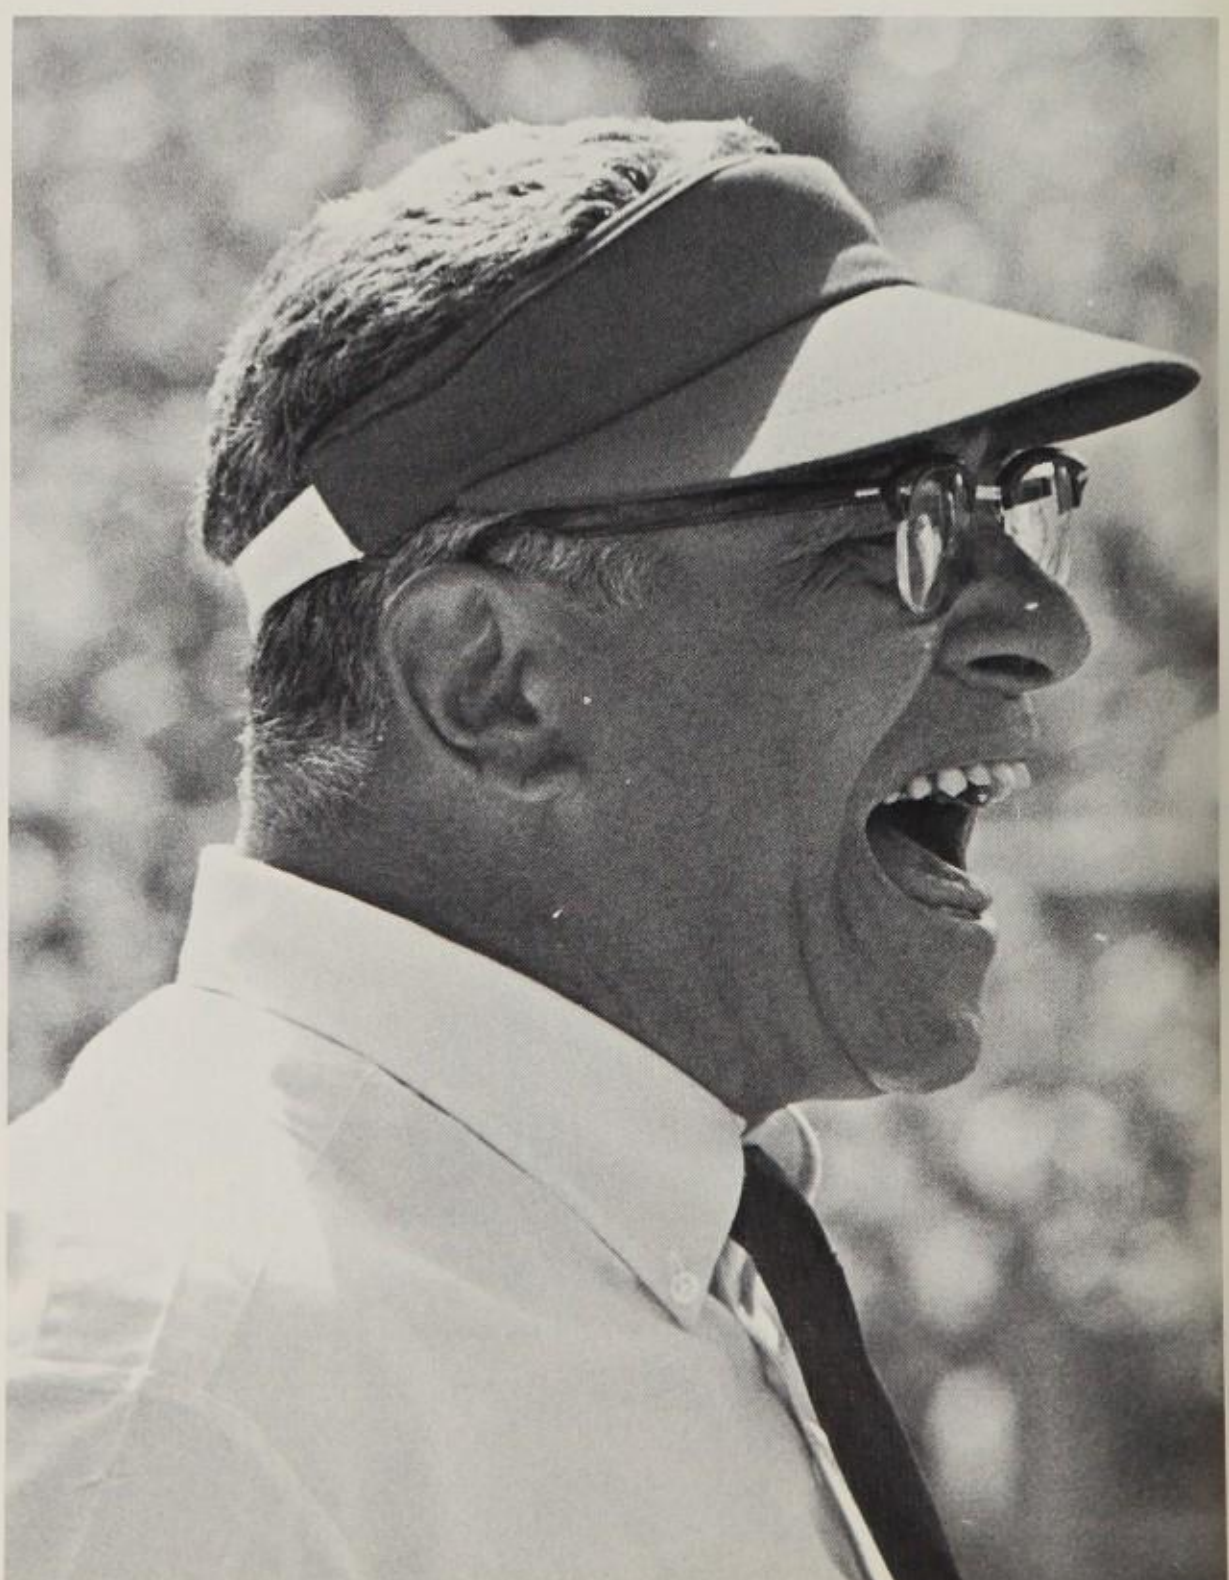
Victory is essential to our being . . .
that special pride of being you . . .
a responsive, participating you.







WE ARE BECAUSE OF YOU . . .



A brilliant man –
wholly motivated by such dynamic forces –
God,
People,
Love.
Who dared to understand?

Never was he to remain in one spot for too long; he just was not the type. Beside his academic endeavors in Latin, Physics, and Chemistry, he could be found quite frequently on the varsity practice fields, whistle in mouth, playhood in hand. With the change of seasons, basketball came and went – leaving the sound of dribbling balls and swishing nets.

As years passed, winning became more a habit than a new experience. Time continued; so did he. But we were left with a foundation – the desire to win; the incentive to learn; the yearning for companionship.

And thus we find a brilliant man –
wholly motivated by such dynamic forces –
God,
People,
Love.
Who dared to understand,
Vincent Lombardi.

Playing a Sport . . .

it means so much more that what
meets the eyes of the spectators . . .
it is the long hours of hard practice . . .

it's the games where your best just isn't good enough . . .
and the games when everyone on
the team gives their best . . .
and it's good enough for a victory.

finally – the culmination of a week's
practice –
a game –
then once again . . .
practice, practice, practice . . .
lose . . .

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Bookends
Time it was,
And what a time it was,
it was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.

Long ago . . . it must be . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

— Simon and Garfunkel
